PROCEEDINGS

COURT IN SESSION: 9:07 a.m.

COURT: Calls case. Counsel enter appearances. Defendant in custody.

Court: Have entered order declaring case complex – convened today to set case deadlines/settings.

Ms. Long: Have conferred with AUSA Henderson re: case – discovery is onerous because of amount and nature - requires heavy redaction regarding victims. Also, have prepared draft motion for protective order - provided to defense last week – will file after hearing today. Suggests schedule as follows: Govt.'s deadline to redact and produce records as 5/4/15 – aware of ongoing duty to identify and make available additional discovery; Govt. would complete discovery obligations by 6/1/15; as to tangible items in Govt.'s possession, if defense wishes to inspect and/or copy would make available on 4/20/15; defense discovery motions and discovery due by 8/1/15; Govt.'s response(s) to discovery motions due 9/2/15; replies to discovery motions due 9/16/15; pretrial motions due 10/19/15; responses to pretrial motions due 11/2/15; replies to discovery motions due 11/9/15; and JS/JT on January 2016 trailing docket – proposed order to be submitted to Court would include deadlines for 404(b) motions, Daubert motions, motions in limine and proposed jury instructions.

Court: Is this the minimum amount of time needed to be ready for trial?

Ms. Long: Yes.

9:19 a.m. Mr. Jones: Addresses Court – does not oppose Govt.’s proposed schedule. Informs Defendant is amenable to Govt.’s proposed schedule.

9:24 a.m. Ms. Long: Proposed schedule assumes case moves along smoothly – is possible would need to seek further continuance.

Court: Have order to submit today?

Ms. Long: AUSA Henderson will be submitting order.

Court: Queries Defendant regarding waiver of speedy trial rights.

Defendant agrees to waive speedy trial rights.

Court: Will sign off on order when submitted – trial date is set for tomorrow - requests form of order be submitted today.

Ms. Long: Will do so.

Court: Anything further?

Counsel inform there is not.

COURT IN RECESS: 9:26 a.m.
